

Professional accreditations Malta Festival Poznan have been created for representatives of Polish and European theatres, theatre groups, theatre festivals as well as theatre school and theatrology students.

Sales regulations for professional accreditations at Malta Festival Poznań 2017:

1. Accreditations are sold by Malta Foundation at Ratajczaka 44, 61-278 Poznań (Poland), hereinafter referred to as the "Organizer".
  2. Sales are limited by the number of available accreditations. Orders will be accepted until supplies last.
  3. Holders of the professional accreditation are entitled to:
    - enter 5 plays chosen from the programme table attached to the regulations (attachment 1),
    - 20% discount on book publications by Organizer,
    - receive the festival magazine and T-shirt by Organizer,
    - reservation free of charge passes for performances by Organizer. Due to the limited pool of free tickets to events, not all the terms may be available
    - to receive a voucher for Nextbike city bikes worth PLN 20 for use during the festival
- After 5 plays have been chosen from the list, a festival guide assigned by the Organizer will put together an individual path/plan for the accredited person to make it easier to attend all selected performances.
- In case of failing to attend the chosen performance, the Organizer has no obligation to refund any costs or make a reservation for a different show time or a different play. The accreditation is a form of the ticket and its holder is bound by the event regulations applicable to the festival audience.
4. The holder of the accreditation has a reservation for only one seat at a given theatre spectacle for the show time specified in the accreditation.
  5. One person can order only one accreditation for a given person. It is allowed to order the accreditation for a third person. One person can order more than one accreditation (for different people).
  6. The accreditation cannot be transferred to another person.
